EXPLANATION OF DUAL RELATIONSHIPS: Although our sessions may be intimate emotionally and psychologically, it is important to remember that our relationship is a professional one rather than a social one. Therefore, our contact is limited to your sessions. If we happen to encounter one another outside of our sessions, I will not approach you in order to ensure confidentiality.

CELL PHONE POLICY: The clinician may provide her cell phone number for emergencies, only. By signing this document, the client understands that the clinician's personal cell phone is not a HIPPA compliant device, and the client waives his/her rights to confidentiality if the client contacts the clinician on this platform.

CONFIDENTIALITY: Conversations and concerns that are discussed during our sessions will legally and ethically be held confidential. However, there are situations in which I cannot legally or ethically hold the information confidential, such as:

- (1) If you disclose or it is reasonably suspected that you will pose imminent danger to the health and safety of yourself or others;
- (2) If at any time you disclose that a child, disabled person, or elder adult has been or will be abused or neglected;
- (3) In the event that a court order requires the release of case records or direct testimony;
- (4) If you request that your records be released, and sign a release of information form;

(5) If you are a minor, your confidentiality is constrained by the request of your parent and/or legal guardian.

**If you have any questions regarding these limitations listed, please feel free to ask at any time.*

COMPLAINTS: This document is mandated by South Carolina state law and Public Law 104-191 for your protection. Rights and procedures to file a complaint: If you feel you have been treated in an unethical manner by Amy Robinson while a client at The Center for Counseling & Wellness, Inc., it is your right to file a complaint with the Board of Examiners for Counselors and Therapists. You may file a complaint by sending a letter directly to the Board of Examiners by calling them and requesting the appropriate forms and guidance.
