Fees Schedule: Sliding Fee Scale ($60.00 - $180.00)

Explanation of Dual Relationships: Although our sessions may be intimate emotionally and psychologically, it is important to remember that our relationship is a professional one rather than a social one. Therefore, our contact is limited to your sessions. Please refrain from inviting me to social gatherings, offering gifts, or asking me to relate to you in any other way beyond the professional context, this includes social media platforms as well. If we happen to encounter one another outside of our sessions, I will not approach you in order to ensure confidentiality.

Confidentiality: Conversations and concerns that are discussed during our sessions will legally and ethically be held confidential. However, there are situations in which I cannot legally or ethically hold the information confidential, such as:

- (1) If you disclose or it is reasonably suspected that you will pose imminent danger to the health and safety of yourself or others;
- (2) If at any time you disclose that a child, disabled person, or elder adult has been or will be abused or neglected;
- (3) In the event that a court order requires the release of case records or direct testimony;
- (4) If you request that your records be released, and sign a release of information form;
- (5) If you are a minor, your confidentiality is constrained by the request of your parent and/or legal guardian.

If you have any questions regarding these limitations listed, please feel free to ask at any time.*

Complaints: This document is mandated by South Carolina state law and Public Law 104-191 for your protection. Rights and procedures to file a complaint: If you feel you have been treated in an unethical manner by Mallory Couch while a client at The Center for Counseling &
